“Old vines done right deliver elegant, detailed, subtly layered flavors that add length and depth to the wine. Though young, this wine has an old soul, and the palate conjures up visual as well as sensory highlights. It suggests autumn leaves, berry pies, Thanksgiving turkey and the last days of fall before winter sets in. Pastry fruits, a hint of mint, brambly herbs and more highlights carry on through a smooth and supple finish.”  95 points PAUL GREGUTT	“Old vines done right deliver elegant, detailed, subtly layered flavors that add length and depth to the wine.
